WHY ACM?

American Chess Magazine is an authoritative voice in the world of chess. It was launched in November 2016 as a division of the European based Chess Informant publishing house, established in 1966. Our authors are world-class players and experts and we offer readers a wide range of features in every issue.

Advertisers can time or adapt the message they wish to deliver in each ad to suit any particular season. ACM comes out four times a year, Spring, Summer, Autumn and Winter, and these issues are distributed in March, June, September and November.

WHY CHESS?

Outside the glare of the major media spotlight chess players now make up one of the largest communities in the world: 605 million adults play chess regularly – a number comparable to regular users of Facebook. In the U.S., more people play chess than tennis and golf combined!
